Insane et vane curae
Franz Joseph Haydn (1732-1809)
Frantic and futile anxieties invade our minds.
They often fill our hearts with madness,
depriving them of hope.
What is the use, O mortal man, of striving after earthly things, if you neglect heaven?
All things turn out well for you if God is on your side.

Cantique de Jean Racine
Gabriel Fauré (1845-1924)
Word of God, one with the Most High, our only hope,
Eternal day of earth and heaven,
We break the silence of the peaceful night.
Divine Savior, cast your eyes upon us!
Pour on us the fire of your powerful grace
That all hell may flee at the sound of your voice.
Banish the slumber of a languishing soul
That brings forgetfulness of your laws!
O Christ, look with favor upon your faithful people
Now gathered here to praise you.
Receive their hymns offered to your immortal glory
And may they go forth filled with your gifts.

Daniel, Daniel, Servant of the Lord
Spiritual, arr. Undine S. Moore
